

NOORDAM

The ms Noordam, scheduled to launch in February 2006, will be the newest addition to Holland America Line's world-renowned fleet of premium cruise ships. As the line's fourth Vista-class ship, and joining her sister ships ms Westerdam, ms Oosterdam, and ms Zuiderdam, ms Noordam will continue the proud tradition of delivering the ultimate onboard experience for your cruise vacation. Combining all the new advances of today's shipbuilding industry with the Tradition of Excellence for which Holland America Line is known, ms Noordam will launch with the complete complement of Holland America Line Signature of Excellence® enhancements to provide state-of-the-art facilities and public areas, and unparalleled services and amenities.

ms Noordam will also continue the Holland America Line tradition of elegant ships designed for comfort and ease. Public rooms will be located on two decks, dining rooms will be in the aft section with expansive views of the sea, and the signature Crow's Nest Lounge and Observation Deck will be forward with an unrivalled view of the surrounding scenery. There will be plenty of deck space for sunning and enjoying the sea-going experience and a classic promenade deck for strolling will encircle the ship.

DINING INFORMATION

How better to enhance your onboard experience than to provide incomparable cuisine in a variety of wonderful ways. Bountiful buffets and dress-up dinners, hors d'oeuvres on your verandah or a picnic on the beach are just a few of the dining options awaiting you aboard a Holland America Line cruise vacation

Number of Dinner Sitting Options: 4

Holland America Line ships offer open seating for breakfast and lunch.

There are four sittings for dinner on our ships. Dinner times are 5:45 pm (First Upper), 6:15 pm (First Lower), 8:00 pm (Main Upper) and 8:30 pm (Main Lower).

For all Alaska cruises, dinner times are 5:30 pm (Early Upper), 6:00 pm (Early Lower), 7:45 pm (Main Upper) and 8:15 pm (Main Lower).

You may request any sitting time, table size and with whom you wish to sit. All such requests should be made through your travel agent in advance of sailing. Requests will be confirmed or waitlisted at the time of booking. Table numbers and table size are on request only and will be assigned by the Maitre d' on board.

Clothing and dress code

The right clothing can make a big difference in the enjoyment of your cruise. First and foremost, dress for comfort. Daily life aboard ship and in ports of call is laid-back and casual. You are encouraged to wear whatever makes you feel most comfortable-sportswear, shorts, sundresses, slacks, and so on. Warmer climates call for clothing made of lightweight, breathable fabrics. For cooler climates casual cloths are suggested, that can be layered easily and possibly a raincoat and waterproof hat or umbrella and gloves. Bring a swimsuit-all ships have pools and whirlpools. Shoes and a cover-up over a bathing suit when walking through the interior of the ship are requested.

If you'd like to jog on deck or work out in the fitness center, bring workout gear. Footwear should include comfortable walking shoes for visits ashore and sandals or rubber-soled shoes for strolling on deck.

Evening dress falls into three distinct categories. Each night a daily program will be delivered to your stateroom announcing the suggested dress for the following evening. Comfortable, relaxed clothing is fine for evenings designated as casual; however, T-shirts, jeans, swimsuits, tank tops and shorts are not allowed in the dining room, Lido restaurant, or public areas during the evening hours. During informal nights, dresses or pantsuits for women and jackets (tie optional) for men are standard.

On festive formal evenings, women usually wear cocktail dresses or gowns and men usually wear business suits or tuxedos. There are approximately two formal nights per week. (Gentlemen: Although business suits or tuxedos are suggested attire for formal evenings, they are certainly not required. You are welcome to wear a jacket and tie on formal nights). Formalwear for ladies and gentlemen can be pre-ordered for your use for the duration of your cruise.

In order to complement fellow guests, Holland America asks that you observe the suggested dress code throughout the entire evening.

Gratuity Policy

Exceptional service is part of the Holland America cruise experience. Because you are a guest, it is Holland America's goal to make sure you receive the finest service possible. And they have made it easy for you to reward excellent service onboard.

A gratuity of $10 per guest per day for dining and stateroom services will be automatically added to your shipboard account on a daily basis. We are confident that you will find the service onboard exemplary and, should you wish to make adjustments, you may do so at the end of the cruise by contacting the front desk.

In terminals, airports, ports of call and on shore excursions, it is suggested that you extend gratuities consistent with customary local practices.

Bar and Wine Service Charge

A 15% service charge will be automatically added to your bar charges and dining room wine account.
